

THE STORY SO FAR

| EDITION | HOST                 | CHAMPION    | INDIA'S FINISH     |
|---------|----------------------|-------------|--------------------|
| 2009    | England              | England     | Lost in semifinals |
| 2010    | West Indies          | Australia   | Lost in semifinals |
| 2012    | Sri Lanka            | Australia   | Group stage exit   |
| 2014    | Bangladesh           | Australia   | Group stage exit   |
| 2016    | India                | West Indies | Group stage exit   |
| 2018    | West Indies          | Australia   | Lost in semifinals |
| 2020    | Australia            | Australia   | Runner-up          |
| 2023    | South Africa         | Australia   | Lost in semifinals |
| 2024    | United Arab Emirates | New Zealand | Group stage exit   |
| 2026    | England              | ?           | ?                  |

Star Watch: Shabnim Ismail

The 37-year-old pace ace reversed her international retirement to help South Africa, which has fallen short in the final in the last three Women's World Cups across both formats, strengthen its bid for a maiden ICC trophy. Shabnim has bowled the fastest recorded delivery in the women's game (132.1 km/h) and is showing no signs of slowing down.

Going solo

The 2018 edition was the first edition where it became a standalone event, no longer tied to the men's event.

Final hurrah

The 2026 edition is the swansong for White Ferns legends Bates, Sophie Devine and pacer Lea Tahuhu, who have announced their retirement. Schutt revealed that this will be her last ICC tournament.

HIGHEST INDIVIDUAL SCORE

126 Meg Lanning for Australia vs Ireland in Sylhet, 2014

MOST RUNS IN WC HISTORY

1,216 Suzie Bates in 42 innings at an average of 31.17

Lord's Cricket Ground

30,000 Seating capacity

Leeds Headingley

Birmingham Edgbaston

London Lord's The Oval

Southampton Hampshire Bowl

County Ground

