

DEFENDING CHAMPION

New Zealand

In 2024, New Zealand beat South Africa to win its maiden T20 World title. It was also the first final without either England or Australia.

INAUGURAL CHAMPION

England

England beat New Zealand comprehensively to be crowned champion in the first iteration of the tournament.

TOURNAMENT DEBUTANT

Netherlands

The Netherlands made it to the World Cup after three wins in three matches during the Super Six stage of the Global Qualifiers. It will be the Dutch side's maiden Women's T20 World Cup appearance and its first appearance at a women's World Cup since 2000 when it last qualified for the 50-over event.

HIGHEST TEAM SCORE

213/5

by England vs Pakistan in Cape Town, 2023

HIGHEST MATCH AGGREGATE

354

India vs New Zealand in Providence, 2018

BEST WITH THE BAT AND BALL

MOST SUCCESSFUL TEAM

Australia

6 titles

Australia has won the ICC Women's T20 World Cup a record six times in the following years

2010, 2012, 2014, 2018, 2020, & 2023

PRIZE MONEY

ICC announced equal prize money for Men's and Women's T20 World Cup in 2023

For the 2026 edition, record prize of $8,764,615

(Rs. 83 CR approximately), a 10% increase on the 2024 edition

$2,340,000

for the winner (approx Rs. 22 CR),

$1,170,000

for the runner-up (approx Rs. 11 CR)

Total centuries scored in T20 World Cup history

6

Number of five-wicket hauls in T20 World Cup history

6

