9} Number of instances where an IPL batter's knock outscored the opposition's total. Tilak Varma became the latest to achieve this feat for the Mumbai Indians against the Gujarat Titans, while scoring an explosive unbeaten 101 before Gujarat was dismissed for 100, one run short of Varma's score. Incidentally, this was the first such instance for a Mumbai batter in the IPL. Four batters from the RCB have done it five times, with Gayle doing it twice. In a unique instance, two batters from the same team achieved this in the same match, when AB de Villiers and Virat Kohli did so against Gujarat Lions in 2016.

2} Number of instances where an Indian batter has registered a 150-plus score in a T20 match. K. L. Rahul, during his unbeaten 152 for Delhi Capitals against Punjab Kings in Delhi on 25 April 2026, emulated Tilak Varma's effort of 151 for Hyderabad in a Syed Mushtaq Ali Trophy match against Meghalaya in Rajkot in November 2024. Overall, K. L. Rahul provided the seventh instance of an Indian registering a 140+ score in T20 cricket, with Abhishek Sharma being the only Indian batter to do this twice, as shown in the table below.
