

Familiar shadows and a harbour on the rise

From East Bengal's uncertainty to Diamond Harbour's rise, Indian football this year has been shaped by a mix of old problems and new developments.

Neeladri Bhattacharjee
neeladri.b@thehindu.co.in

The Indian Super League for the 2025-26 season has seen everything — clarity after months of uncertainty, a new broadcast partner and a new club from Delhi.

As the league approaches its business end, results on the field have been equally box office, with a revolving door of coaches and a new commercial partner lined up for the upcoming season.

Kolkata, much like an electoral change of hands, witnessed another shift: Oscar Bruzon, who joined East Bengal FC in October 2024, announced that he will walk away from the club

Steady hand: Oscar Bruzon led East Bengal to the IFA Shield final and the Super Cup final, providing rare stability in uncertain times. EAST BENGAL MEDIA

