

Winning cycle: Inter Milan's 21st league title is its third in six years, the first coming in 2020–21 to end Juventus' dominance. AFP points from 34 matches — the same tally with which they won the title last season. Hansi Flick's side extended its lead with a 2-1 win over Osasuna, with all three goals coming in the final 10 minutes.

Robert Lewandowski and Ferran Torres struck late before Raul Garcia pulled one back for the hosts.

Barcelona would have sealed the title had Madrid failed to beat Espanyol, but Álvaro Arbeloa's side stayed alive in the race thanks to Vinicius Junior's brace, taking its tally to 77 points..

Ligue 1

Paris Saint-Germain got its title defence back on track after a 2-1 loss to Lyon, going unbeaten in its next three matches (two wins, one draw).

Meanwhile, title rival Lens, meanwhile, managed only two draws in the same period. Luis Enrique's PSG leads with 70 points from 31 matches, six clear of Lens. A potentially decisive clash between the two sides on May 13 looms large.

Bundesliga

While Bayern Munich has already secured the title and Borussia Dortmund a Champions League spot, both were pushed to the limits in the latest gameweek.

Michael Olise's late strike spared Bayern the blushes in a 3-3 draw with Heidenheim, marking a second consecutive close call for the champions after last week's 4-3 comeback from three goals down against Mainz.

Dortmund, meanwhile, suffered a narrow defeat to Borussia Monchengladbach, with Haris Tabakovic scoring the late winner.

But what will make for good drama with two matches to go is the race for Champions League spots. Bayern (83) and Dortmund (67) have already qualified, but just four points separate third and sixth. Bayer Leverkusen, VfB Stuttgart and Hoffenheim are all tied on 58 points, with only two of them set to qualify.

Serie A

Inter Milan clinched its 21st Serie A title with three games to spare after a 2-0 win over Parma left Napoli unable to catch up. Marcus Thuram and Henrikh Mkhitaryan scored to get over last year's heartbreak, which had seen Inter lose the Scudetto to Napoli on the final matchday.

"We feel so happy now. It was not easy to start again after a season where we lost all the competitions right at the end, but I am very happy today," Lautaro Martinez said.

This marks Inter's third league title in six years, the first coming in 2020-21 to end Juventus' eight-year hegemony at the top.

(All results updated till May 4)