

4th

Wreaking havoc: Veteran spinner Simon Harmer wrecked India with four wickets in each innings for superb match figures of 8 for 51. Along with Keshav Maharaj's 2 for 37, he tore through the middle order as India lost its final five wickets inside eight overs.

K. R. DEEPAK

5th

History at Eden:

Washington Sundar held out for 31 from 92 balls before Aiden Markram's part-time spin finally prised him out. South Africa then closed out its first Test win in India since 2010, sealing a low-scoring contest inside three days at the Eden Gardens.

K. R. DEEPAK

