

Combination of themes

By C.G.S.Narayanan

Zagoruyko features changed mates after at least two black defences over at least three phases involving set, tries and key. The first two problems presented below are from 'The Problemist' by leading exponents of the two-mover which combine zagoruyko with modern themes.

Mate in two moves

Try: 1.d8Q? (2.Nf2 A Nf6 B)
1..Kxe4 2.Bh7 C 1...Rxe4 2.Qf6
But 1...Be7! Try: 1.Nf7? (2.Bh7 C)
1..Kxe4 2.Nf6 B (Nf2?) 1.Rxe4
2.Nfxh6 but Rc6! Key 1.Nf3! (2.Bh7
C) 1...Kxe4 2.Nf2 A (Nf6?) 1..Rxe4
2.Nh4 1..Rc6 2.Rf4; 1...Ra6 2.Re5

Burmistrov combination masterfully combined with zagoruyko on the same square. A very impressive record breaking thematic content is shown with excellent economy. The strategy of the second try and key phase is identical, cutting a line to either d5 or d3 thus ensuring a unique mate after 1...Kxe4 (Judge Anatoly Sesaranko)

The second problem presents synthesis of Erokhin theme and zagoruyko with extra phase and Dombrovskis effect.

Mate in two moves

Try: 1.Qg5? (2.Ne5 A) Bxg1 2.Qg3.
1...Bxf4 2.Qxf4 but 1...Nxd3!
Try: 1.Qb2? (2.Qf2) Bxg1 2.Rg3
1...Nxd3 2.Qe2 but 1...Nc2!
Try: 1.Nd5 B? (2.Rf2) Bxg1 2.Ne5 A
1...Nxd3 2.Qxd3 but 1..Bg3!
Key 1.Qf5! (2.Ne5 A) Bxg1 2.Nd5 B
1...Nxd3 2.Rxd3; 1...Re5 2.Qxh5
Now a solver's problem where changed mates occur after defences on f4. Which knight makes the key?
