

Rich haul for Indians at Asian Archery Championships

Paris Olympics archers B. Dhiraj and Ankita Bhakat (pic above) became the first Indian male and female recurve archers to win individual titles at the Asian Archery Championships.

Ankita stunned Korea's Paris Olympic silver-medallist Nam Suhyeon 7-3, while Dhiraj beat compatriot Rahul 6-2 in the final to claim gold.

In the recurve men's team event, Yashdeep Bhoge, Atanu Das and Rahul edged Korea's Seo Mingi, Kim Yechan and Jang Jiho in a shoot-off for a 5-4 win. The Indian contingent finished with 10 medals across recurve and compound events to top the standings.
