

12th

Rain paused: Sri Lanka's Nilakshika Silva plays a shot during her unbeaten 55 against New Zealand in Colombo. Her effort helped the host post 258 before rain forced the match to be abandoned. GETTYIMAGES

13th

Brief brilliance: Pakistan captain Fatima Sana celebrates the dismissal of her English counterpart, Nat Sciver-Brunt, in Colombo. Sana's four-wicket haul restricted England to 133 for nine in a rain-shortened contest, but Pakistan's chase was cut short by showers. GETTYIMAGES

14th

Spellbound control: Australia leg-spinner Alana King's (second from left) economical spell of two for 18 in 10 overs spearheaded the defending champion's 10-wicket win over Bangladesh, sealing a semifinal berth. K. R. DEEPAK