

15th

Twin calm: South Africa openers Tazmin Brits and Laura Wolvaardt bump gloves after guiding their side to a 10-wicket win over Sri Lanka. The ODI was converted into a 20-over affair following rain, with the Proteas chasing down 121 in 14.5 overs. AFP

16th

Drenched routine: New Zealand's Suzie Bates celebrates after taking a catch against Pakistan in Colombo. Persistent rain forced yet another washout, the third in four matches at the venue, with both sides sharing points. AFP

17th

Measured regret: India vice-captain Smriti Mandhana on her way to a 94-ball 88 against England in Indore. Speaking at the post-match press conference after her side's narrow four-run loss, Smriti took responsibility for the defeat, admitting that the team's shot selection should have been better. R.V. MOORTHY