Eliminated from both the Asian Cup and World Cup qualifiers, the men's national football team finds itself in a nightmare no footballing nation should be in.

Add to that the uncertainty over the Indian Super League's future, and it becomes clear that Indian football is caught in a crisis of its own making.

But survival precedes resurrection. The All India Football Federation (AIFF) will hope the 2025-26 Super Cup is, after all, that faint glimmer of light at the end of a long, dark tunnel.

"Football is a matter of national interest. Individuals may
