

» GUWAHATI TEST PHOTOLINE INDIA-SOUTH AFRICA

1st

Meditative: Amid the fall of partners, Senuran Muthusamy, batting at No. 7, stood firm with a captivating rearguard, his maiden Test hundred, 109 off 206 balls, carrying South Africa to a commanding 489 in the first innings. PICS: RITU RAJ KONWAR

2nd

Rare dominion: Marco Jansen towered over the Test with bat and ball, his 93 in South Africa's first innings followed by a devastating 6 for 48 in India's reply, a rare all-round double last achieved by a South African more than a century ago.

3rd

Body blow: Marco Jansen all but sealed a rare series win in India for the world Test champions South Africa, tearing through the hosts for 201 to hand them a commanding first-innings lead of 288 on day three. On a surface still offering little to the bowlers, India imploded from 95 for 1 to 122 for 7, watching its hopes of a comeback seep away.

