7 } The number of sixes hit by Marco Jansen in Guwahati during his knock of 93. This equalled the tally of sixes hit by two other batters (see table) — the most recorded in a Test innings for South Africa. Jansen, meanwhile, equalled the tally of Pakistani Shahid Afridi, who had also hit seven sixes against India in a Test innings during his 103 in Lahore on 14 January 2006.

Most sixes in a Test innings for South Africa

6s	Batter	(score)	Agst	Venue	Date	Result	Inns	Bat#
7	A. B. de Villiers	(163)	Aus	Cape Town	21 Mar 2009	Won	2	5
7	Quinton de Kock	(141*)	WI	Gros Islet	11 Jun 2021	Won	2	6
7	Marco Jansen	(93)	Ind	Guwahati	23 Nov 2025	Won	1	9

Note: Jansen's seven sixes are now the maximum hit by a visiting batter in India. He went past the previous best of six sixes by West Indian Viv Richards (in New Delhi in December 1974) and Australian Matthew Hayden (in Chennai in March 2001).

4 } The number of visiting all-rounders to perform the double of 90-plus and five-wicket hauls in the same Test match in India. Marco Jansen, with his 93 and 6/48 in Guwahati, became the latest to achieve this.

All-round performances (90 runs and five-wicket hauls) by visiting players in India

Runs	Bowling	Player (For)	Venue	Month, Year	Result
100	5/90	C. Smith (WI)	Delhi	Feb 1959	Drawn
