Thailand was crowned champion of the ICC Women's Emerging Nations Trophy 2025 in Bangkok after finishing top of the table on Net Run Rate in a closely-fought tournament. Thailand, UAE, Scotland and the Netherlands all ended on equal points, but the host sealed the title with a final-day win over Scotland. Natthakan Chantham topped the batting charts for Thailand with 144 runs, while Sunida Chaturongrattana led the bowling with 13 wickets.

Sri Lanka's dramatic collapse of nine wickets for 30 runs paved the way for Pakistan's six-wicket victory in the tri-series final in Rawalpindi. After cruising to 81 for one in the first 10 overs, the visitor lost momentum completely, managing only 33 runs for its last nine wickets in the next 9.1 overs. Shaheen Afridi and Mohammad Nawaz led the charge with three wickets apiece. Pakistan then chased down the modest 115-run target with eight balls to spare.

Faf du Plessis has brought the curtain down on his long IPL career after choosing not to enter the upcoming auction, marking the first time in 14 years he will miss the tournament. The 41-year-old South African announced on social media that he will instead feature in the 2026 Pakistan Super League. Meanwhile, Aussie all-rounder Glenn Maxwell has also pulled out of the auction.

Andre Russell has announced his retirement from the IPL after Kolkata Knight Riders did not retain him ahead of the 2026 season, but he will remain with the franchise as part of the support staff in a newly created role of "power coach". The KKR legend said he chose to step away while still feeling competitive, preferring to "leave a legacy" rather than fade out.
