Indian boxers winning medals in all 20 weight classes, including nine gold, six silver and five bronze, at the World Boxing Cup Finals in Greater Noida may seem enormous, but it warrants some perspective in the run-up to the 2026 Commonwealth Games and Asian Games, and the 2028 Los Angeles Olympics.

Amid the jubilation, Boxing Federation of India (BFI) president Ajay Singh rightly pointed out that there is a long way to go as India aspires to do well at the Asian Championships, Asian Games,

Commonwealth Games and Youth Olympics in preparation for LA28.

The Indian boxers' unprecedented success, which will give them valuable ranking points and help them secure seeding in elite events next year, was the result of several factors.
