

5th

A damp squib: Pakistan captain Fatima Sana and Sri Lanka skipper Chamari Athapaththu shake hands after their final league match was washed out due to rain. It was the fifth game at the R. Premadasa Stadium in Colombo to be abandoned. GETTY IMAGES

6th

In seventh heaven: Alana King celebrates during her record-breaking spell against South Africa. The Australian leg-spinner claimed 7 for 18 in seven overs, the best figures in Women's ODI World Cup history, to skittle the Proteas for 97. Aussies won the match by seven wickets. R. V. MOORTHY

7th

So long: New Zealand captain Sophie Devine acknowledges her teammates and the England players after their league-stage match in Visakhapatnam, which England won by eight wickets. It was Devine's 159th and final ODI, following her announcement to retire from the format after this World Cup. K. R. DEEPAK

8th

Direct hit: India's Radha Yadav celebrates after getting Bangladesh captain Nigar Sultana Joty run out at the non-striker's end. Radha also picked three wickets with the ball, but the match in Navi Mumbai was abandoned due to rain.

EMMANUAL YOGINI