

EMMANUAL YOGINI

Jemimah Rodrigues

Age: 25

From: Mumbai, Maharashtra

A Bandra girl from Bhandup, Jemimah spent her formative years practising her cover drive at the iconic Shivaji Park under her father's guidance. She rose up the ranks of domestic cricket, impressing in Mumbai's U-19 team and went on to debut for India in 2018.

WC25: After a tough start to her maiden ODI World Cup, Jemimah delivered a masterclass in the semifinal against Australia, scoring an unbeaten 127 that propelled India into the final. Earlier, she impressed with her first World Cup fifty against New Zealand.

292 runs in 7 innings (HS: 127; Avg: 58.40; SR: 101.03)

EMMANUAL YOGINI

N. Shree Charani

Age: 21

From: Kadapa, Andhra Pradesh

Badminton occupied much of a six-year-old Shree Charani's time, but cricket remained a part of her daily routine. The COVID-19 pandemic gave her the opportunity to practise more. Her impressive performances for the Delhi Capitals in the Women's Premier League earned her a call-up to the national team earlier this year.

WC25: The young left-arm spinner has been a revelation for India. Shree Charani finished her maiden ODI World Cup campaign as India's second-highest wicket-taker with 14 scalps, with her best figures of three for 41 coming against Australia in the league stage.

14 wickets in 9 innings (BBI: 3/41; Avg: 27.64; Econ: 4.96)

EMMANUAL YOGINI

Pratika Rawal

Age: 25

From: New Delhi

A psychology graduate and an excellent student who scored 92.5 per cent in her Class 12 CBSE exams, Pratika began playing cricket in fourth standard. She made her ODI debut late last year against the West Indies.

WC25: Pratika has been the steady rock at the top of India's batting order. Partnering Smriti Mandhana, she consistently forged solid partnerships in crucial games. She marked her maiden World Cup with a century against New Zealand before an untimely injury cut her campaign short. Nonetheless, her tally of 308 runs in six innings underlined a brilliant debut. Post-final, she was part of the celebrations – cheering from a wheelchair, a true image of resilience.

308 runs in 6 innings (HS: 122; Avg: 51.33; SR: 77.77)

« This flag on my shoulder means a lot, and being here with the team is just surreal. Injuries are part and parcel of the game. Very happy I was part of this team, this winning team.