

AFP

Harleen Deol

Age: 27

From: Chandigarh

Growing up in Punjab, Harleen honed her skills playing alongside boys before making her mark in domestic cricket even before her teens. She later represented Himachal Pradesh and made her India debut in 2019.

WC25: Usually batting at No. 3, Harleen anchored India's innings through the early games, scoring consistently in the 30s and 40s. She was left out of the playing XI for the knockouts..

169 runs in 5 innings (HS: 48; Avg: 33.80; SR: 75.11)

Arundhati Reddy

Age: 28

From: Hyderabad, Telangana

Picking up the sport in her teenage years, Arundhati rose through the Hyderabad domestic ranks before representing Railways and Kerala. She has been part of India's T20I setup since 2018, making her ODI debut only last year, and impressed in the WPL with the Delhi Capitals.

WC25: Although she didn't play a match for India in this tournament, Arundhati was a livewire in the field. She demonstrated her athleticism during the match against Bangladesh, taking a stunning catch at deep mid-wicket as a sub.

PTI

Radha Yadav

Age: 25

From: Mumbai, Maharashtra

Growing up in Mumbai's Kandivali, Radha often crossed paths with Jemimah Rodrigues in school tournaments and at age-level State teams. Radha made her international debut in 2018 before moving to play domestic cricket for Baroda.

WC25: While Radha wasn't a regular in India's playing XIs for most of the tournament, she showcased her athleticism as one of the side's best fielders. Against Bangladesh, she starred with the ball, taking three wickets in six overs.

4 wickets in 3 innings (BBI: 3/30; Avg: 35.25; Econ: 7.42)

Compiled by Rajdeep Saha