

» FROM THE WORLD OF CRICKET

1

Romario Shepherd became just the second West Indian bowler to pick up a T20I hat-trick during the third match of the series in Bangladesh. Half-centuries from Roston Chase and Ackeem Auguste helped the Windies romp home with more than three overs to spare and complete a 3-0 clean sweep.

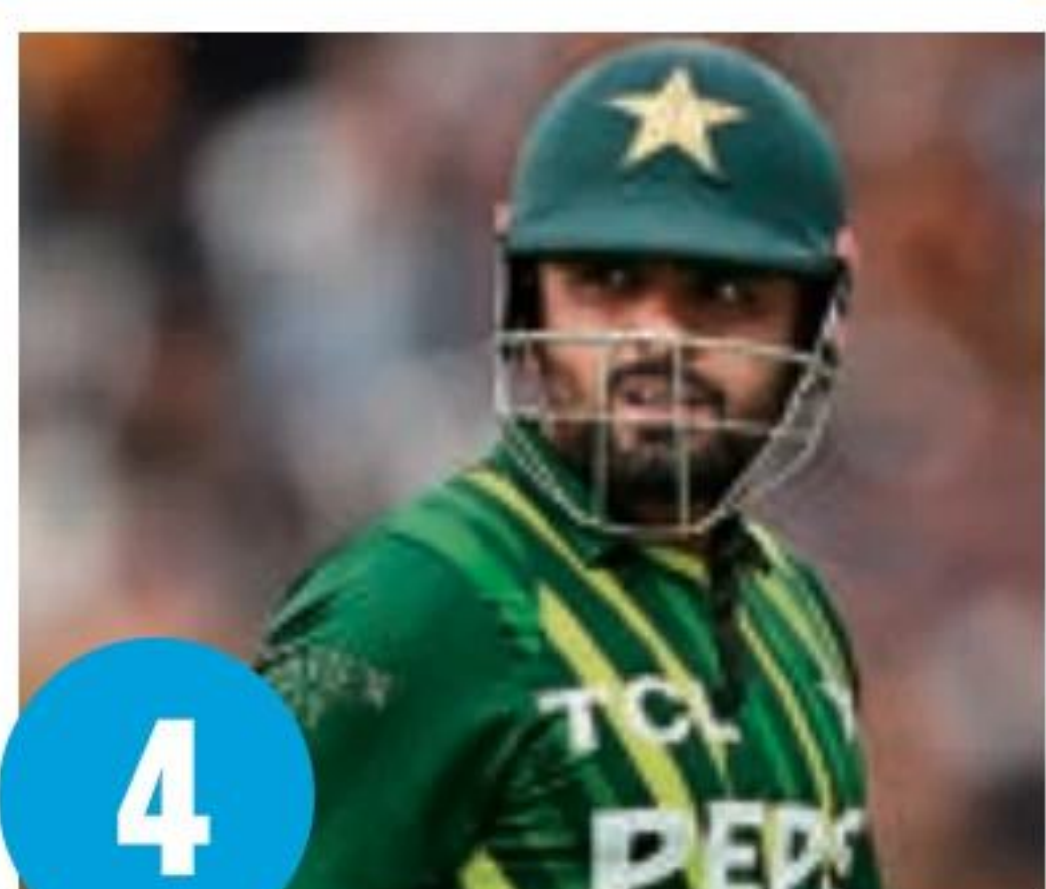

2

Former New Zealand captain Kane Williamson announced his retirement from T20Is after the home series against England. The 35-year-old batter played 93 T20Is for his country since making his debut against Zimbabwe in 2011, captaining the side on 75 occasions.

3

Afghanistan blanked Zimbabwe 3-0 in a T20I series in Harare. The 22-year-old pacer Abdollah Ahmadzai impressed with seven wickets in three matches. Openers Rahmanullah Gurbaz and Ibrahim Zadran continued to do the heavy lifting with the bat, scoring 147 and 169 runs in the series, respectively.

4

Former Pakistan skipper Babar Azam surpassed Rohit Sharma (4231) to become the highest run-scorer in T20Is during the second match of the home series against South Africa. Babar was recalled for his first series in the shortest format in nearly a year after Fakhar Zaman was rested. After losing the first match in Rawalpindi, the host registered back-to-back wins to take the series 2-1.

5

Indian batter Shreyas Iyer has been discharged from a hospital in Sydney after receiving treatment for a blunt abdominal injury sustained while fielding during India's third ODI against Australia. Shreyas felt some discomfort after completing a diving catch to dismiss Alex Carey. He left the field to undergo further evaluation at a hospital. He was admitted to the ICU after his vitals dropped due to internal bleeding.

6

The Hundred cricket competitions will switch from a draft system to an IPL-like player auction from the 2026 season onwards. A salary cap and a collar (a minimum amount to spend) will be introduced as part of the changes. Squads will feature 16-18 players, out of which four can be overseas. Teams can make up to four pre-auction signings between November and January.