S8UL made history when it became the first and only Indian esports team to be inducted into the club partner program of the Esports World Cup Foundation (EWCF) for the upcoming 2025 World Cup.

The team, made by the merger of teams Soul and 8Bit, has been a prominent side in the Battlegrounds Mobile India (BGMI) scene.

It won the BGMI Masters Series last year and also made waves in esports content generation, winning Esports Content Group of the Year three times in a row. It has now expanded into VALORANT and Call of Duty: Mobile (COD: M) S8UL was selected among the 40 sides for the program worth USD 20 million, with each side

: receiving up to USD 1 million to expand their brand and
: grow their global audience leading up to and throughout
: the World Cup 2025.

: "Being selected as an EWCF Club Partner for the
: Esports World Cup 2025 is not just a monumental
: achievement for S8UL- it's a defining moment for Indian
: esports on the global stage," said Animesh 'Thug'
: Agarwal, co-founder and chief executive officer of S8UL.

: "It's indeed a great opportunity- it gives our players,
: creators, and the entire org a chance to bring our
: content, talent, and passion to a worldwide audience."

: The World Cup 2025 will take place in Riyadh between
: July 7 and August 24, with a prize pool expected to rise
: beyond that of last year, i.e. USD 60 million.
