« I'm absolutely delighted for Kirsty. And we've got an athlete at the head of the organisation. That's a good thing. – Sebastian Coe after losing the IOC presidential race to Kirsty Coventry »

« My objective is to be able to play my best tennis at the Grand Slams and the tournaments where I participate. My schedule is revised, so obviously I'm not chasing ranking points. – Novak Djokovic on chasing the world number one ranking »

35-km

Canadian Evan Dunfee broke the men's 35-kilometre race walk world record with a time of two hours, 21 minutes and 40 seconds in Dundice, Slovakia.

Dunfee, 34, shaved seven seconds off the record set by Japan's Masatora Kawano in October 2024, going solo from start to finish and beating his closest challenger German Christopher Linkee by three minutes behind. Dunfee was a bronze medallist at the 50km event in the 2019 World Championships and the 2020 Olympic Games.

81-77

India pulled off a coup, displaying spunk and excellent end-game skills to outwit Bahrain 81-77 in a thriller to qualify for the FIBA men's Asia Cup 2025.

India will now travel to Jeddah, Saudi Arabia, for the Continental tournament to be held from August 5 to 17.

Certainly not the favourite, India outplayed Iraq 97-77 and then Bahrain in the Qualifying tournament for the third-placed teams in Group-H. India led 39-38 against Bahrain at half time and then pulled away in the third, taking a 62-55 lead. It held its own in the fourth and final quarter to clinch a famous victory. The last time India beat Bahrain was in 2013.

SOARING HIGH

Armand Duplantis won his third World Indoor Championship title with a jump of 6.15m in the men's pole vault event in Nanjing. This was Mondo's seventh global title, but was made to work all the way by Emmanouil Karalis, who took silver with a new personal best of 6.05m. American Sam Kendricks rounded out the podium with a best of 5.90m. REUTERS
