Anahat Singh, Veer Chotrani clinch titles

Anahat Singh clinched her 10th PSA title and Veer Chotrani his first in India at the SRFI Indian Tour Squash Championship — a PSA Challenger event — at the Indian Squash and Triathlon Academy (ISTA) in Chennai.

In a repeat of the Western India Open final in Mumbai last December, Anahat prevailed over compatriot and top seed Akanksha Salunkhe 11-6, 8-11, 11-8, 11-5 in the women's final. Akanksha may take heart from the fact that she managed to take a game off Anahat, having lost in straight games in their previous final.

Anahat won seven consecutive points to secure the third game 11-8, having been 4-8 down. In the men's final, second seed Chotrani, who had rallied after losing the first game, won eight points in a row to clinch the third game 11-6 from 3-6 down. He defeated Frenchman Melvil Scianimanico 3-11, 12-10, 11-6, 11-7.

"I'm very happy. I didn't expect it because this glass court (centre court at ISTA) and I have a bad relationship. I have never performed well on this glass court, but I think that's gone from my head now. It's always nice to win at home," said Chotrani, who secured his sixth PSA title overall.
