

Surya's feat

16 } Consecutive scores of 25-plus for Suryakumar Yadav in the IPL 2025, the longest such streak for any batter in men's T20 cricket. Suryakumar passed Temba Bavuma's record on 26 May 2025 in MI's game against PBKS in Jaipur and extended his tally to two more. The South African had 13 successive scores of 25-plus runs between 2019 and 2020. Suryakumar, meanwhile, already holds the equivalent IPL record, having bettered Robin Uthappa's tally of 10 such consecutive scores made in 2014.

717 } The aggregate runs by Mumbai Indians' Suryakumar Yadav in this edition of the IPL is the highest for a batter at positions #3 or lower in any men's T20 tournament. He bettered the aggregate of A. B. de Villiers, who made 687 runs in the 2016 edition of the IPL for RCB.

1 } The number of opponent sides successfully chasing targets of 200-plus set by Mumbai Indians in the IPL. This rare occasion occurred recently when Punjab Kings (207/5) successfully chased Mumbai's first innings total of 203/6 in the Eliminator game in Mullanpur on 1 June 2025. On 18 previous occasions, Mumbai had defended totals over 200-plus since IPL started in 2008.
