England thrashes the Windies 3-0 in ODI series

1 Jos Buttler starred with vital contributions in the first two matches

England men thrashed West Indies 3-0 in the T20I series. In the opener, Jos Buttler's 96 off 59 balls powered England to 188, before Liam Dawson's four-wicket haul sealed a 21-run victory. West Indies posted 197 in the second match, with vital contributions from Johnson Charles and captain Shai Hope. However, Buttler top-scored again with 47 as England chased the target with four wickets to spare. In the third T20I, Ben Duckett and Jamie Smith added 120 for the opening wicket to help England post 248. Rovman Powell hit a spirited 79 off 45, but West Indies fell short by 37 runs.
