

AFP

2

Mehidy Hasan Miraz has been named captain of the Bangladesh men's ODI team, replacing Najmul Hossain Shanto, the Bangladesh Cricket Board has confirmed. The 27-year-old all-rounder will begin his tenure during the upcoming three-match ODI series in Sri Lanka next month. With 1,617 runs and 110 wickets in 105 ODIs, Mehidy joins an elite group of Bangladeshi players – Mohammad Rafique, Mashrafe Mortaza, and Shakib Al Hasan – to achieve the 1,000 runs and 100 wickets milestone in the format.

REUTERS

3

England women completed a 3-0 whitewash over West Indies women in the ODI series, adding to their earlier clean sweep in the T20I series. Openers Tammy Beaumont and Amy Jones struck centuries in the first two matches, helping England post scores over 300 on both occasions. The visitor failed to mount a challenge, conceding 108- and 143-run defeats respectively. The rain-shortened final game, reduced to 21 overs, saw West Indies manage just 106 runs, which England chased down with nine wickets in hand.

EMMANUEL YOGINI

4

Former India pacer Siddharth Kaul has registered for the men's Big Bash League (BBL) draft, while 15 Indian players have entered the women's draft, according to Cricket Australia. Kaul, who featured in three ODIs and three T20Is for India before retiring from international cricket last November, is the only Indian male player to have signed up for the upcoming BBL draft.

REUTERS

5

West Indies secured a 1-0 win in the three-match T20I series against Ireland after rain washed out the first two games. In the third match, the visitor, led by Evin Lewis (91, in pic) and Shai Hope (51), posted 256 for five – its second-highest T20I total. Ireland put up resistance with key knocks from Ross Adair and Harry Tector, along with a glut of extras from the West Indies bowlers. But spinner Akeal Hosein claimed three wickets to seal a 62-run win and break West Indies' winless streak.

GETTY IMAGES

6

Cricket West Indies has confirmed a historic three-match T20I series against Nepal, set to begin on September 27 in Sharjah. Although hosted by the Cricket Association of Nepal (CAN), all matches will be played in the United Arab Emirates (UAE). This will be the first-ever bilateral series between the two sides and serves as final preparation for Nepal ahead of the men's T20 World Cup Asia qualifier later in the year. The first two games will be played on consecutive days – September 27 and 28 – with the final match on September 30.