TROPHIES

The women's singles winner is presented with the Venus Rosewater Dish, a circular dish with mythological designs. The men's singles winner is awarded a silver-gilt cup which has the inscription – 'All England Lawn Tennis Club Single Handed Championship of the World'. The actual trophies remain with the club, while three-inch smaller replicas are given to the winners to take with them. All the doubles trophies are silver cups. The Princess of Wales, who is also the Patron of the AELTC, presents the trophies.

PRIZE MONEY

The total prize money for the upcoming edition is £53.5 million, an increase of seven per cent from 2024. Both men's and women's singles champions will receive £3 million each, which is 11.1 per cent more than what Alcaraz and Krejčíková received last year.
