

2

All-rounder Roston Chase has been named the new West Indies Test captain. The 33-year-old, who has not played a Test in over two years, replaces 32-year-old Kraigg Brathwaite, who resigned in March after three years in charge. Chase will lead in three home Tests against Australia in June and July. The off-spinner has taken 85 wickets, and as a middle-order batter, he has scored 2265 runs, including five centuries.

3

The England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) has announced that Tim Southee will join as a Specialist Skills Consultant for the England men's teams on a short-term basis. Southee, 36, who retired from international cricket in December as New Zealand's all-time leading wicket-taker, will support England's squads across all formats through to the conclusion of the Test series against India.

4

Shukri Conrad has been appointed South Africa's limited-overs coach, taking charge across all formats. The 58-year-old had taken over the Test side in January 2023 and led it to its first World Test Championship (WTC) final appearance. He replaces Rob Walter, who resigned last month for personal reasons. The Proteas, who will face Australia at Lord's from June 11-15 in the WTC final, have enjoyed strong red-ball success under Conrad. His first limited-overs assignment will be a tri-series in Zimbabwe alongside New Zealand in July. Later in the year, South Africa will also tour Australia, England and India.

5

Pubudu Dassanayake has returned as head coach of the USA men's team. Dassanayake, who succeeds former Australian batter Stuart Law, had coached the side between 2016 and 2019, a period in which it earned ODI status. The 52-year-old played 11 Tests for Sri Lanka in the mid-1990s before moving to Canada, where he captained the national team.

6

The UAE recorded its first-ever win over Bangladesh after a last-over thriller in Sharjah, chasing down 206 to clinch a famous victory. Batting first, Bangladesh made a strong start with opener Tanzid Hasan scoring a half-century and captain Litton Das contributing a crucial 40. Towhid Hridoy's 45 off 24 balls helped Bangladesh post 205 for five. In reply, UAE skipper Muhammad Waseem and Muhammad Zohaib shared a 107-run opening stand. Waseem smashed 82 off 42 balls, hitting nine fours and five sixes. Needing 12 off the final over, Haider Ali struck the winning runs off Tanzim Hasan on the penultimate ball.

7

Shaun Tait has been appointed Bangladesh's new pace bowling coach, replacing former New Zealand cricketer Andre Adams, whose tenure began in February 2024 and lasted only a few months. Tait's contract with Bangladesh runs until November 2027. Before this, he worked with teams including West Indies, Pakistan and Afghanistan, as well as several franchise league sides around the world.