

Delhi GM Open 2025 from June 7

The 21st edition of the Delhi International Open Grandmasters Chess Tournament, offering a total prize purse of Rs. 1.21 crore, will be held at Tivoli Gardens, Chhattarpur, from June 7 to 14.

The tournament will feature three sections. The top section, comprising around 20 Grandmasters, will have an overall pool of approximately 2,500 players.

Played in the classical format with a time control of 90 minutes, the top event carries a prize fund of Rs. 51 lakh. The top three finishers will receive Rs. 7 lakh, Rs. 6 lakh, and Rs. 5 lakh, respectively.

The two other sections are open to players rated below 1900 and 1700, respectively. Each will offer a prize pool of Rs. 35 lakh. All three sections will follow a 10-round Swiss League format, with different time controls.

"With every edition, we are strengthening the foundation for a sustainable, high-performance chess culture in the country," said Bharat Singh Chauhan, president of the Delhi Chess Association.
