

S8UL, ASSEMBLE!

S8UL, the only Indian esports organisation at the Esports World Cup 2025, has announced rosters for eight titles, which feature Indian as well as international stars.

Neeladri Bhattacharjee
neeladri.b@thehindu.co.in

S8UL roped in eChampions League and virtual Bundesliga winner Jonas Wirth and Mexican champion Aaron Rivera for the upcoming Esports World Cup 2025.

The company became the first Indian esports organisation to be selected as a club partner for the 2025 Esports World Cup (EWC), set to be played in Saudi Arabia between July 8 to August 24.

S8UL has announced rosters for eight titles at the EWC 2025.

'Jonny' Wirth won the virtual Bundesliga Club Championship, the Grand Final and the eChampions League last season, with all the titles featuring Electronic Arts' FIFAe, which is now called EA FC 24.

He has spent most of his professional career at the esports wings of two German football clubs, VfL Bochum (Bundesliga) and SC Paderborn (Bundesliga 2).

Later, the organisation entered the Mobile Legends: Bang Bang (MLBB) circuit by acquiring North American side BloodThirstyKings.

The roster qualified for the MLBB Mid-Season Cup (MSC) at EWC 2025 after winning the North America Challenger Tournament Spring Season.

S8UL roster for Esports World Cup 2025:

- Apex Legends: Rick Wirth (Sharky), Benjamin Spaseski (Jesko) and Tom Canty (Legacy)
- Call of Duty: Warzone: Colin Bowers-Wilson (Trikenpathy), Braxton Trice (Braxtvn), and Ryder Skarzinski (Ryda)
- Chess: Nihal Sarin and Aravindh Chithambaram
- EAFC25: Jonas Wirth (Jonny) and Aaron Rivera (Happy)
- Mobile Legends Bang Bang: Michael Cosgun (MobaZane), Ian Hohl (FwydChickn), Jang Seong-hun (Hoon), Ziameth-Jei Caluya (ZIA), Vo Trung (Shark), and Carlos Ortega Vega (Bestplayer1)
- Starcraft II: Pyung Jae Koh (GuMiho)
- Tekken 8: Arja Gamoori (Sephblack) and Nino Schwarz (Nino)
- Fatal Fury: Marcoantonio Malpica (Yurikov)

BEST VALORANT PLAYERS IN INDIA

ABHIRUP
"LIGHTNINGFAST" CHOUDHURY

PRANAV
"KOHLLIII" KOHLI

GANESH
"SKROSSI" GANGADHAR

SABYASACHI
"ANTIDOTE" BOSE

AKRAM
"RAWFIUL" VIRANI