

BGMI AND PUBG PC SCENE IN INDIA

The finals of Battlegrounds Mobile India (BGMI) Series (BGIS) 2025, the biggest BGMI tournament in the country, will take place in Kolkata between April 25 and 27, with a prize pool of INR 3.2 crore.

BGIS 2025 started on February 3rd, with teams participating in two phases – the main event and the grind. Teams played six matches in each round, with the total pool narrowed down to just 64 over four rounds until the quarterfinals, followed by the wild card round.

The top 16 from the 64 made it to the finale, set to take place at the Biswa Bangla Mela Prangan.

Qualified teams for BGIS 2025 finals: GodLike Esports, Team SouL, Reckoning, Orangutan, Cincinnati Kids, 4EverxRedxRoss, FS Esports, HadesxH4K, Genesis, True Rippers, Medal Esports, THWxNONx, SOA Esports, Rivalry NRI, Team Versatile, Bot Army

At a global level, India has been given a slot in the upcoming PUBG Nations Cup 2025, marking its return to one of the premier events in professional PC battle royale esports.

The Nations Cup will take place in Seoul, South Korea, for the third time in a row but will now have a larger roster of 24 teams, instead of 16 in the last edition, and is expected to have a bigger prize pool.

PALMEIRAS, BUNDESLIGA ENTER ROBLOX

Palmeiras, one of South America's most popular football clubs that honed legends like Roberto Carlos, Cafu and Rivaldo, recently entered the Roblox universe – a gaming platform for user-generated content that reportedly has an average of 85.3 million daily active users.

The Brazilian side is not the first; the German Bundesliga entered a partnership with Roblox in January this year, becoming the first European football league to do so.

BUSINESS OF ESPORTS

Real Madrid goalkeeper Thibaut Courtois announced a partnership with Hull-based esports and sports hub Federation of Sport. The deal marked the first UK-based venture for the Belgian shot-stopper, who has previously invested in esports.

Did you know? Five-time UEFA Champions League winner Casemiro (centre), who played a pivotal role in Manchester United's Europa League quarterfinal win over Lyon, owns an esports company named Caseesports.

ESPORTS WORLD CUP SCHEDULE

The schedule of Esports World Cup 2025, set to take place in Riyadh, Saudi Arabia, was announced in April. The inaugural edition of the tournament will start on July 7 and continue till August 24, featuring 25 tournaments, where League of Legends, EA FC 25, DOTA 2 and PUBG will be among major titles.

The World Cup will have a USD 70 million prize pool, the biggest prize pool in an esports tournament, surpassing the record of DOTA 2's The International, which had a pool of USD 40 million.
