

Veer, Anahat qualify for Squash World Championships

Veer Chotrani and Anahat Singh secured their spots for next month's Squash World Championships after winning the Asian qualifiers in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia.

Chotrani will join Ramit Tandon, Abhay Singh, and Velavan Senthilkumar in the men's singles draw, while Anahat will be the only Indian competing in the women's singles at the Championships, which will be held in Chicago from May 9 to 17.

Seventeen-year-old Anahat earned her maiden World Championships appearance by defeating seventh seed Toby Tse of Hong Kong, China, 3-1 (11-4, 9-11, 11-2, 11-8).

Second seed Chotrani, 23, also booked his World Championships debut with a commanding 3-0 (11-3, 11-4, 11-8) win over local favourite and third seed Ameeshenraj Chandaran in the men's final, wrapping up the match in just 26 minutes.
