Bengaluru. "This win is as much for the fans as it is for the team," he said, overcome with emotion, on his knees, head bowed to the turf.

After 18 seasons with one franchise and many heartbreaks, Kohli could barely believe the moment had arrived. The tears were inevitable.

But with his retirement from Tests and T20Is, one might ask — what still fuels him in the IPL?

"Even after 18 years, he has the same impact, same energy and same commitment that marked his debut season," said R. Sridhar, former India fielding coach. "His dedication to fitness and discipline has inspired others across teams to adopt similar routines."

And at RCB, Kohli's spirit has rubbed off. The squad rallied around him, and when the moment came, they gave it everything to win it for 'VK'.

Fire and ice. That's the contrast between Kohli and Patidar. One is all visible intensity, the other unreadable.

But Patidar's restraint masks depth. "He might look calm, but there's an ocean inside him," said Amay Khurasiya, his long-time mentor.

When few backed Patidar, Khurasiya, then heading the Madhya Pradesh Cricket Academy, doubled down. "When he was discarded from

Key partnership: Phil Salt's pivotal role led KKR to the 2024 IPL title, and his partnership with Virat Kohli was again key to RCB's maiden triumph. PTI
