

SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT

FROM PLAYOFFS TO PROPOSALS: TALES OF GLORY AND LOVE

Our correspondents capture the essence of IPL's Ahmedabad, Jaipur and New Chandigarh legs — thrilling action on the field and captivating stories beyond it.

It wasn't just the Chennai Super Kings' talisman M. S. Dhoni who faced a momentous question on May 25.

CSK and Gujarat Titans were playing their final IPL group-stage match that day, and as has become tradition in recent years, the world awaited Dhoni's word on his future.

On any other Sunday, this subplot would have had Trusha Vyas, a 29-year-old photographer from Ahmedabad, utterly thrilled. But this was no ordinary day. As her car pulled up in front of the stadium gate, she could feel her heart racing. She wouldn't call it "nerves" — it was something more personal, terrifying, yet strangely beautiful.

Trusha's partner, Aditya Shah, a cinematographer by profession, had accompanied her.

"Aditya and I have had so many memories together at the Narendra Modi Stadium. We watched India vs Pakistan and the 2023 ODI World Cup final here. We also attended the Coldplay concert," Trusha told the Diary. GT vs CSK was about to