Australian all-rounder Glenn Maxwell announced his retirement from One-Day Internationals. Since debuting against Afghanistan in 2012, Maxwell made 149 ODI appearances for Australia, scoring 3,990 runs at an average of 33.81 and a strike rate of 126.70. He also claimed 77 wickets with his off-spin and took 91 catches. The 36-year-old played pivotal roles in Australia's 2015 and 2023 ODI World Cup triumphs. His unbeaten 201 against Afghanistan in the 2023 edition, while battling severe cramps, is widely regarded as one of the most iconic knocks in World Cup history.

Pakistan secured a 3-0 T20I series sweep against Bangladesh after a nervy win in the third game. Chasing 197 in the final match, Pakistan reached the target with seven wickets to spare, led by Mohammad Haris, who scored his maiden T20I century. The host had posted identical totals of 201 in the first two matches, with captain Salman Agha scoring fifties in both. Bangladesh was undone by Hasan Ali's five-wicket haul in the opener and failed to impress with the bat in the second, handing Pakistan victories by 37 and 57 runs respectively.

Ireland and West Indies settled for a 1-1 draw in the three-match ODI series. Ireland dominated the opener with Andy Balbirnie's century contributing to a 303-run total. Barry McCarthy's four wickets and George Dockrell's three helped bowl out the Windies, securing a 124-run win. Rain interrupted the second match after West Indies had posted 352. The visitor carried that momentum into the decider, smashing 385 – powered by a second consecutive century from Keacy Carty. The target was revised to 363 in 46 overs due to rain, but Ireland folded for 165, handing West Indies a 197-run win and a series-levelling result.

The International Cricket Council (ICC) has announced that the upcoming edition of the eight-team Women's ODI World Cup will take place from September 30 to November 2 across five venues in India and Sri Lanka. The M. Chinnaswamy Stadium (Bengaluru), ACA Stadium (Guwahati), Holkar Stadium (Indore), ACA-VDCA Stadium (Visakhapatnam), and R. Premadasa Stadium (Colombo) are the designated stadiums for the tournament. The Sri Lankan capital will host all matches featuring Pakistan. The last ICC global women's event hosted by India was the ICC Women's T20 World Cup in 2016, which was held alongside the men's event.
