

Cruising to victory: The women's 4x400m relay won gold despite falling short of a national record. Pics: ASIANATHLETICS

» ASIAN ATHLETICS CHAMPIONSHIPS

FUTURE BRIGHT

Jonathan Selvaraj

jonathan.selvaraj@thehindu.co.in Javelin thrower Sachin Yadav (right) may have won silver on his international debut, but for coach Naval Singh, the real highlight wasn't the medal — it was the expression on gold medallist Arshad Nadeem's face.

"Arshad came to Gumi saying he was targeting the 100m mark. Around 2,000 Pakistani nationals had come to cheer for him. Everyone thought he was going to win easily.

India's stellar showing at the recently concluded Asian Athletics Championships was powered by a fearless new generation of athletes delivering breakthrough performances on the big stage.

