

ESPORTS WORLD CUP 2025 GETS A DOCUMENTARY

Engaging fans through documentaries has been a trend in the last decade, with Drive to Survive – Formula 1 – and The Test – Cricket – attracting over seven million viewers.

Now, Esports has one of its own, with Amazon Prime announcing a documentary titled 'Esports World Cup: Level Up' on the inaugural edition of the tournament, set to be played in Saudi Arabia between July 8 and August 24.

Two-time Emmy Award-winner R. J. Cutler will direct the show, which will also feature FIFAe legend Mossad Aldossary – a FIFAe World Cup winner (2018) and the only person to win back-to-back Xbox World Championships.

ASIAN YOUTH GAMES TO FEATURE THREE MEDAL EVENTS IN ESPORTS

The 3rd Asian Youth Games (AYG) is set to feature eFootball, Street Fighter, and Rocket League as official medal events, each to be contested in both boys' and girls' categories.

Scheduled to be held in Bahrain from October 22 to 31, 2025, the tournament will include 24 sports disciplines, with esports making its debut as an official medal event.

Open to athletes aged between 15 and 18 years as of December 31, 2025, the esports competitions will be governed by the Asian Electronic Sports Federation (AESF).

The inclusion of PC-based esports titles marks a significant development for India, a market conventionally dominated by mobile gaming.

Esports will also feature at the upcoming Asian Games in Aichi-Nagoya where 11 esports titles will be official medal events. India had competed in four titles at the last edition of the Asiad.

Did you know? Portugal and Al Nassr midfielder Otavio Monteiro has invested in Legacy, a Brazilian esports organisation, to primarily help with the growth of Counter Strike 2.

QEEYOU AND AVENGERS TO REPRESENT INDIA AT WORLD ESPORTS CHAMPIONSHIP

Qeeyou and Team Avengers from India secured spots in the 17th World Esports Championship (WEC), acing the Counter Strike 2 and Dota 2 titles, respectively, at the National Esports Championship (NESC).

The tournament began on May 22, with the final played six days later. Both titles were played in a double-elimination format.

Qeeyou clinched the title after dominating Fired Up Gaming in the CS2 finals with consecutive victories (13-6 on Anubis, 13-7 on Ancient).

Meanwhile, the Avengers reigned supreme in DOTA 2, pipping The Mob 2-0 in a lopsided battle.

WHO AM I?

I came in second place in the 2022 Esports Award for Mobile Players of the Year. I hold the record for the highest individual kill count with 16 kills in a PMIS semifinal tournament.

The answer will be revealed in the next issue.

Answer to previous issue's quiz:
Tanmay "ScOutOP" Singh

BUSINESS OF ESPORTS

Indian gaming Giant Nazara Technologies acquired UK-based gaming company Curve Games for INR 247 crore, expanding its global imprint in the esports scene.

EASTER EGG 'BULLET SPONGE'

Bullet Sponge in gaming refers to an enemy who is extremely difficult to neutralise or someone who is neutralised after a lot of damage to the opponent.

Rankings and quiz powered by NODWIN Gaming