

LAST LAUGH AT BGIS 2025

SaumRaj won BGIS 2025 as the in-game leader (IGL) for Team Versatlie, becoming the first IGL to win two BGIS titles. After three days of intense gaming, the team finished on top with 169 points and took home a prize money of INR 69 lakh.

Neeladri Bhattacharjee
neeladri.b@thehindu.co.in

Success stories are always great, but those which come after a failure are greater. Saumya Raj (aka SaumRaj) lived one when he clinched the Battlegrounds Mobile India Series (BGIS) 2025, last month.

SaumRaj, a popular name in the BGMI circuit, had won BGIS 2021 with Skylightz Gaming but failed to repeat his magic in 2023, watching his former teammate Ammar "Destro" Khan clinch the title.

Cut to 2025 — SaumRaj won BGIS 2025 as the in-game leader (IGL) for Team Versatlie, becoming the first IGL to win two BGIS titles. After three days of intense gaming, the team finished on top with 169 points and took home a prize money of INR 69 lakh.

GodLike Esports (152 points) came second while Orangutan (143 points) finished third, earning prize money of INR 38 lakh (including INR 1 lakh for being the fan favourite) and INR 26 lakh, respectively.

BGIS 2025 Award Winners

- MVP – Jonathan (Godlike Esports) – INR 3,00,000
- Finals MVP – Jonathan (Godlike Esports) – INR 1,50,000
- Best IGL – SaumRaj (Team Versatile) – INR 2,00,000
- Emerging Star – Scaryygod – INR 1,00,000
- Best Clutch Player – Spower – INR 1,00,000
- Fan Favourite Player – Jonathan (Godlike Esports) – INR 1,00,000
- Fan Favourite Team – Godlike Esports – INR 1,00,000

BGMI also announced the dates for its Pro Series, the Battlegrounds Mobile India Pro Series (BMPS), which will begin on May 22 and will have the same prize money as its last edition at INR 2 crore.

The last edition was hosted in Hyderabad, but this time, it will be organised in New Delhi.

BEST BGMI PLAYERS IN INDIA

RUDRA
"SPOWER" BANSWANI

JONATHAN
"JONATHAN" AMARAL

SAUMYA
"SAUMRAJ" RAJ

TANISHK
"ADMINO" SINGH

ANKIT
"AK" SHUKLA