New Zealand completes clean sweep against Pakistan

1 The Kiwis won the rain-reduced 42-over final game by 43 runs

New Zealand completed a clean sweep of the three-match ODI series against Pakistan after the Kiwis won the final game by 43 runs.

The rain-reduced 42-over match saw New Zealand post 264 for eight, courtesy of skipper Michael Bracewell's half-century. Despite Babar Azam's fighting fifty, Ben Sears' second five-wicket haul in the series helped the hosts bundle Pakistan out for 221.

Sears' first five-wicket haul came in the second match, where Mitchell Hay's unbeaten 99 powered New Zealand to 292.

Pakistan was bundled out for 208, handing the hosts the series victory.

In the opener, Mark Chapman's century and Nathan Smith's four-wicket haul guided New Zealand to a 73-run win.
