

EMMANUEL YOGINI

Australia captain Alyssa Healy will retire from all forms of cricket following the upcoming series against India. The 35-year-old wicketkeeper has scored more than 7,000 runs and effected 275 dismissals across formats, and led Australia to a historic 16-0 Ashes whitewash of England in 2025. Healy won the ODI World Cup twice, including producing the highest individual score in a World Cup final with a blistering 170 against England in 2022. She also claimed six T20 World Cup titles during a career that redefined the role of a wicketkeeper-batter in the women's game. Australia hosts India in a Test match, three One-Day Internationals and three T20Is in February and March.

R. V. MOORTHY

Sri Lanka has appointed Vikram Rathour as batting coach on a consultancy basis ahead of the Men's T20 World Cup, scheduled to be held in India and Sri Lanka in February and March. Rathour's stint will run from January 18 to March 10. A former India cricketer, Rathour served as batting coach of the Indian men's team from September 2019 to July 2024 and is currently the lead assistant coach at Rajasthan Royals in the IPL. This appointment comes a month after Sri Lanka secured the services of fielding coach R. Sridhar, another former member of the Indian setup.

VIJAY SONEJI

Virat Kohli moved to second place on the all-time men's international run-scoring list, overtaking Kumar Sangakkara and trailing only Sachin Tendulkar. The former India captain became the fastest batter to reach 28,000 international runs, achieving the landmark in just 624 innings during the first ODI against New Zealand in Vadodara. Tendulkar had reached the mark in 644 innings, while Sangakkara did so in 666.
