

« To win three times, I'm so happy about it. I think it's about the consistency in your training. Another thing it's about is believing in yourself. –

Uganda's Jacob Kiplimo, who won his third consecutive men's crown at the World Cross Country Championships »

« “The season is definitely insane, and that's not good for all of us, as you see so many players getting injured. The rules are quite tricky with mandatory events. –

World No. 1 Aryna Sabalenka, expecting to skip events again this year rather than putting her health at risk »

3rd

World No. 1 An Se-young of South Korea clinch her third consecutive Malaysia Open title with a 21-15, 24-22 victory over

China's Wang Zhiyi in the women's singles final in Kuala Lumpur. In the men's singles final Thailand's Kunlavut Vitidsarn took the title when World No. 1 Shi Yuqi retired through injury.

1000

Indiana Pacers head coach Rick Carlisle recorded his 1,000th NBA victory, joining an elite group of the league's most accomplished coaches, as the Pacers edged the Charlotte Hornets 114-112. Carlisle became only the 11th coach in NBA history to reach the milestone, underlining his longevity and success at the highest level. The achievement places him in rare company alongside legendary figures such as Gregg Popovich, Don Nelson, Phil Jackson, Lenny Wilkens and Pat Riley, all of whom have left an indelible mark on NBA coaching history.

WINNING MOMENT

The champions of the Tata Steel Chess India 2026 in Kolkata. From left: Wesley So (Blitz, men), Carissa Yip (Blitz, women), Kateryna Lagno (Rapid, women) and Nihal Sarin (Rapid, men). DEBASISH BHADURI