

3rd

Superb knock: Quinton de Kock, returning from retirement, slammed his first T20I fifty in almost 18 months and laid the foundation for the Proteas after India won the toss and opted to bowl in New Chandigarh. He was run out and fell agonisingly short of his second T20I century, but his 90 off 46 balls took his team to 213 for four.

R. V. MOORTHY

4th

Wrecker-in-chief: India's chase was rocked early after Shubman Gill fell for a golden duck in the second T20I. His opening partner Abhishek Sharma could score only 17 off eight balls. Ottniel Baartman nabbed Axar Patel for run-a-ball 21 before running through the tail. He picked four for 24 to cap off a commanding 51-run victory. R. V. MOORTHY

