

53 } The number of centuries for Virat Kohli is now the most for any one format in international cricket. During his three-figure knock in Ranchi on 30 November 2025, he went past Tendulkar's number — 51 Test centuries, and in the next in Raipur, he increased the number by two. Meanwhile, Kohli, during his Ranchi knock, has also now set the record for most centuries at home in ODI cricket, surpassing the previous record of 24 centuries at home by Englishman Joe Root in Test cricket. The second table has all the details.
