

Ojas bags men's individual compound gold

Maharashtra's Ojas Pravin Deotale brought his A game to the Senior National Archery Championship at the Hyderabad Public School, beating Delhi's Abhishek Verma to win gold in the men's individual compound event.

The ever-chirpy Ojas stayed focused throughout his battle with veteran Abhishek, the pair going toe-to-toe every step of the way. Cheered on by fellow archers and coaches from all teams, they did not drop a single point after five rounds, finishing with 150 points apiece.

In the shootout, Abhishek faltered by the smallest of margins — 28 points to Ojas' 30 — to miss the podium top step.

In the bronze medal clash, Sahil Rajesh Jadhav (RPSB) beat Mohit Dagar (Haryana) 149-145.

In the women's individual compound event, Aditi Swami (Maharashtra) and Sakshi Chaudhary (Uttar Pradesh) were locked in a closely fought battle for the gold.

Each managed 29 points in the final round, with Aditi relieved to come out on top (146-145).

Madhura Dhamangaonkar (Maharashtra) defeated Swati Dudhwal (Rajasthan) 148-146 to secure bronze.
