

HEADLINE NUMBERS

BELOW IS A COLLECTION OF EYE-CATCHING STATS CONCERNING T20 WORLD CUP PLAYERS AND STADIA ACROSS THE THREE MAJOR PHASES OF PLAY IN A T20 INNINGS

POWERPLAY

Abhishek Sharma - India

184.48

Abhishek has scored the second-most runs (749) at the second-best strike-rate (184.48) in the PowerPlay of any batter from a Full Member side to have faced at least 100 balls in that time.

MIDDLE OVERS

Dewald Brevis - South Africa

225.71

Brevis strikes at 225.71 against spin in the middle-overs, the highest of any batter from a Full Member side to have faced at least 25 balls in that time.

Ben Duckett - England

197.22

Duckett has the joint-highest strike rate against spin (197.22) in the PowerPlay of any batter from a Full Member side to have faced at least 25 balls in that time.

DEATH OVERS

Hardik Pandya - India

173.97

Hardik Pandya, one of only two Indian batters to face more than 100 balls at the death, strikes at 173.97 in this phase of play.

Arun Jaitley Stadium

10.21

The Arun Jaitley Stadium in Delhi has the highest PowerPlay run rate (10.21) in all T20s of all the grounds in the host countries (India and Sri Lanka).

Sikandar Raza - Zimbabwe

207.43

Raza has the best strike rate in the death overs (207.43) of any batter to have played at least 10 innings.

All stats from after the 2024 World Cup to January 22, 2026