

» ASHES PHOTOLINE ADELAIDE TEST

1st

Relentless brilliance: Jofra Archer crowned a commanding spell with a well-earned five-wicket haul as Australia was dismissed for 371 in the third Test in Adelaide. On a flat surface offering little assistance, Archer's 5 for 53 from 20.2 overs stood out. It was also the fourth five-wicket haul of his Test career. AFP

2nd

3rd

Dynamic duo: Usman Khawaja (right), reprieved early, made the most of an unexpected recall after Steve Smith was ruled out with vertigo on the morning of the Adelaide Test, compiling a composed 82. Alex Carey (left) then took centre stage, his brilliant maiden Ashes hundred rescuing Australia's first innings after it slumped to four wickets for under 100. REUTERS & AFP