

4th

Short burst: Pat Cummins, who claimed six wickets in the match, was playing his first Test in five-and-a-half months after recovering from a back injury. While he said he came through the game well, he eventually ruled himself out of the remaining two matches. AP

5th

Turning heads: Dropped on 99 by Harry Brook, Travis Head endured eight tense deliveries stranded one run short before belting Joe Root straight down the ground for four. The inevitable century snuffed out England's brief hopes of a comeback. AFP

6th

Done and dusted: Nathan Lyon is elated after bowling Ben Stokes on day four, a dismissal that sealed England's fate. It condemned the Three Lions to 18 consecutive Tests without a win in Australia, a streak dating back to the 5-0 drubbing in the 2013-14 Ashes and now the longest winless run by any visiting team, as Australia retained the Ashes. GETTY IMAGES