

» ASHES PHOTOLINE MELBOURNE TEST

1st

Standing out: Josh Tongue was England's star performer with career-best figures of five for 45 as the tourist dismissed Australia for 152 on day one of the Melbourne Test. AFP

2nd

Pace barrage: Michael Neser (in pic) claimed four wickets and Scott Boland three as England was skittled for 110. The 20 wickets that fell made it the most on the opening day of an Ashes Test since 1909, surpassing the 19 that fell on the first day of the series opener in Perth. AFP

3rd

Red-letter day: Jamie Smith and Harry Brook celebrate as England finally broke its Ashes drought in Australia, sealing a four-wicket win after Brydon Carse's four-for set up a modest chase of 175. A frenetic contest saw 36 wickets fall in under six sessions, the match lasting just 852 balls. GETTY IMAGES