

Hardik Pandya's all-round show

5} The number of players to achieve the all-rounders double of 1000+ runs and 100+ wickets in a T20I career (and also 2000+ runs and 100+ wickets) is limited. India's Hardik Pandya became the latest entrant when he claimed his 100th T20I wicket against South Africa in Dharamsala on 14 December 2025. Five days later, on 19 December 2025, in Ahmedabad, he crossed 2000 runs in the format, becoming the latest player to achieve both the 100+ wickets and 2000+ runs in T20I cricket.

16} The number of balls Hardik Pandya needed to reach his 50th run during his blistering knock of 63 in 25 balls in Ahmedabad in the T20I match against South Africa. This is now the second quickest by an Indian batter to reach an individual fifty in this format. However, his fifty is the quickest by an Indian at home. This is also the joint-quickest fifty by any opponent batter against South Africa. England's Moeen Ali during his 52 in 18 balls, also reached his fifty in 16 balls in Bristol on 27 Jul 2022.

Quickest to reach an individual fifty (in fewest number of balls) for India in T20Is
