

» WORLD VIEW OF THE FORTNIGHT

« India is an important market for us. It has a lot of untapped potential. Track and field is becoming more popular in India, following the success of Neeraj Chopra. – World Athletics chief Sebastian Coe said of India hosting the 2030 Commonwealth Games »

« This is an event for which I don't have a lot of expectations. I'm here just to play, just experiment, enjoy and play chess to have fun. – World champion D. Gukesh on the sidelines of the World Rapid and Blitz Chess Championships in Doha, Qatar »

$1m

World No. 1 An Se-young of South Korea became the first badminton player to earn over USD 1 million in prize money in a single season after defeating China's Wang

Zhi Yi 21-13, 18-21, 21-10 to win the BWF World Tour Finals 2025.

Se-young had already accumulated USD 763,175 before the season finale, and the winner's cheque of USD 240,000 took her past the USD 1 million mark.

2026

Stan Wawrinka said the 2026 season will be his last, with the three-time Grand Slam singles champion aiming to finish his career "on the best note possible". Wawrinka won the Australian Open in 2014, the French Open in 2015 and the US Open in 2016, carving out those titles during an era dominated by Roger Federer, Rafael Nadal and Novak Djokovic. He has won 16 ATP titles overall, though his most recent triumph came in Geneva in 2017.

BATTLE OF THE SEXES

Nick Kyrgios beat Aryna Sabalenka 6-3, 6-3 in the 'Battle of the Sexes' exhibition match billed as a modern take on Billie Jean King's famous victory over former Grand Slam winner Bobby Riggs more than 50 years ago, but one that has ignited controversy over its relevance and meaning. Playing in front of a sold-out crowd at Dubai's Coca-Cola Arena, Kyrgios negotiated the slightly smaller 'equaliser' court on women's World No. 1 Sabalenka's side to secure victory after a tight and entertaining contest played under modified rules. REUTERS