

However, the night turned sour due to Karim Adeyemi's reaction after being substituted in the 60th minute. Dortmund Sporting director Sebastian Kehl, who unsuccessfully tried to stop Adeyemi from going straight into the locker room, confirmed the club would fine the player for his actions.

In the much-anticipated clash between Bayer Leverkusen and RB Leipzig, Leverkusen came out on top with a 3-1 win. Martin Terrier, Patrik Schick and Montrell Culbreath scored for Leverkusen, while Xaver Schlager netted Leipzig's only goal.

After matchday 15, Bayern stays top with 41 points. Dortmund (32), Leipzig (29) and Leverkusen (29) are second, third and fourth respectively.

Ligue 1

Though Ligue 1 had no fixtures during the Christmas break — with the last match played on December 14 — there was reason to cheer for Paris Saint-Germain, which dominated L'Equipe's Team of the Year selection.

The treble-winning side occupied 10 of the 11 spots, including goalkeeper Gianluigi Donnarumma, who left for Manchester City in the summer of 2024.

Mason Greenwood earned a

On a roll: Bayern Munich's Harry Kane now has 100 goal involvements in 78 games, the fastest in Bundesliga history. AFP place in the front three alongside Ousmane Dembele and Desire Doue for his brilliant spell with Marseille, having scored 11 league goals so far to lead the Golden Boot race.

RC Lens leads the standings at year's end with 37 points, one ahead of PSG, while Marseille is third with 32. Nantes and Metz remain bottom with 11 points and will hope to pull clear of relegation trouble in the new year.